

Israel 2028: Samuel Neaman Institute Wins Environmental Award at CleanTech 2010 Convention

09.08.2010

USISTF is proud to announce that the Samuel Neaman Institute for Economic and Policy Studies \(SNI\) at the Technion in Haifa has recently won an award for their contribution to Environmental planning and strategy.

The award was given at the 14th Annual CleanTech 2010 convention in Tel Aviv on June 29th. Policy makers, industry leaders and academics from around the world attended this exciting event. The award won by SNI was given for their original design for improving the environment and for their recommendation for a national environmental policy as part of the USISTF Israel 2028: Vision and Strategy report. The Samuel Neaman Institute is a key partner of USISTF for our Israel 2028 continuation initiative "Implementing Innovation Policy."
