

International Platform of Experts in Planning Law 11th Annual Meeting – Technion, Haifa, Israel

1st – 3rd November, 2017

PROGRAM

Wednesday 1st November

09:30 Welcomes
Seminar opening - background and context for the cases in Israel

Coffee Break

11:00 Presentations of case responses – first set of countries

13:00 Lunch on site

14:00 Field tour in the Haifa Bay rural Regional Council (north of Haifa) with local hosts, regarding massive urban expansion projects on farmland. Minibus and site visits.

17:00 Evening tour cont. – visit to a kibbutz in that region. Discussion of kibbutz property rights (and lack of them). Dinner hosted by the kibbutz.
Return to Technion campus hotel.

Thursday 2nd November

09:00 Presentations of case responses – second set of countries

Coffee Break

11:00 Presentations of case responses – third set of countries

13:00	Lunch on site
14:00	Presentation of case responses - Fourth set of countries
	Coffee Break
17:00	Joint conclusions
18:00	Special evening program and dinner – planning-law tour of Druze village-town, and traditional dinner at a traditional home (self payment).

Friday 3rd November

09:00	Check out of hotels, ready to leave Technion by 09:30 (those not staying at Technion – perhaps can meet on the way).
09:30	Leave Haifa for second field visit, along the coast south of Haifa to Tel Aviv, with visits to selected sites.

Saturday 4th November

TBD	Optional: Saturday morning or noon - tour of Tel Aviv “White city” UNESCO historic preservation area, explained from a planning-law perspective by Dr. Nir Mualam.
------------	--

Before or after the meeting: Let us know if you need help with your further touring in Israel.